Welcome to Charley's Grill at The Depot!

If you listen closely, you can almost hear the distant rumble of the 1867 Milwaukee Road line that rolled through the bustling Depot. Building on the authentic atmosphere, our classic combination of great food and friendly, efficient service flourishes in this setting reminiscent of the rich history of the downtown Minneapolis Mill District.

Charley's namesake is the Milwaukee Road's most famous dining car waiter, Charley Strong. Standing tall at the restaurant entrance, Charley's statue, a ghost-like monument, greets guests with a crisp, white linen over his arm just as he did from 1882-1910.

Above all, Charley is a testament to the charm of this time period and The Depot. Even after he retired, he missed the trains so much that he often walked along Washington Avenue to watch the locomotives and the people. Charley died soon after in 1913.

Charley's statue is only one of the many statues representing the many men and women who worked at or visited the historic Depot in the past. As you pass through these historic halls, take moment to imagine the lives these statues represent and enjoy your time at The Depot!

Wine Selections and Stone Arch Bar

We proudly serve an array of wines from the best producers around the world, classic cocktails and a wide range of draft and bottled beer in a warm living room setting overlooking our patio. Stop by the Stone Arch Bar after your meeting or after dinner.
